From the Apartment of the Commander:

General Order No. 2005 – 1

The annual Religious Freedom Day ceremony will take place in Fredericksburg, Virginia on Sunday, January 16th. Commanderies will muster at the railway station at 12:30 p.m. The parade steps off at 1:30 p.m. and the ceremony at the Religious Freedom Monument begins at 2:30 p.m. All those who are able to march are urged to be at the railway station at 12:30. Those who cannot march but can participate, can fall in with the Commandery at the Monument and should be there by 2:00 o'clock. Following the ceremony, participants will be guests of the sponsoring Knights of Columbus for lunch and fellowship at the University of Mary Washington Catholic Student Center. Old Dominion Commandery had a very good turnout in January 2004 and should maintain this reputation.

Old Dominion Commandery No. 11 will open its January Conclave in full form at 7:30 p.m., January 26th, in the North Room of the George Washington Masonic National Memorial. A light supper will be served at 6:30 p.m. in the dining room.

THE COMMANDER SALUTES AND THANKS

- All Officers, members and guests of Old Dominion Commandery who patiently overcame the horrendous traffic problems to participate in our annual Christmas Program and helped provide a sumptuous pot luck supper. The supper was delayed about 30 minutes as only about six persons were able to cut through the traffic to arrive on time but the supper and program were acclaimed as being worth the great efforts and wait and the eventual attendance was excellent. Special thanks to Sir Knight Pepper, our Musician. The program was based upon one used by Sir Knight MarkUnderwood as Commander in 1997 and he had based his upon a program used by our Commandery in 1897.

For each Sir Knight and all family members, wheresoever dispersed, we wish you a very happy, healthy, safe New Year and hope to see you in 2005!

PLANNING AHEAD

Our February Conclave will be a “move-up” night with our officers who have agreed to serve our Commandery in 2005 – 2006 filling the stations they will occupy next year.

In His Name,

John Shroeder
Commander
