

Companions:

Thanks to everyone who helped arrange our recent Degree conferrals. A new Companion Robert J. Scroggie joined our Chapter in June. Welcome Bob! Another has taken all his degrees with the exception of the Royal Arch. We are moving forward albeit slowly, but progress is being made. I am asking each member to work diligently to spread the word about our York Rite Bodies and entice Master Masons to join us. Make it a point to wear our "Red Jackets" and draw attention to yourself. Have a petition and pamphlets readily available to hand out to prospective candidates. We need help and can remedy the situation by becoming more proactive in our endeavors. For the summer, at least, we have ended our suppers before our meetings. However, a light food selection will be available of which you may partake.

Ralph

Sincerely and Fraternaly,

Educational point;

Companions, we will be conferring the Most Excellent Master degree at our stated meeting in July. Please come out and watch. We need YOU to help form a line stretching across the room. No signs, no walking, no words; just stand there and link hands.

At our stated meeting in August, Rt. Ex. Bullach will give a talk on the Most Excellent Master degree. A number of aspects will be reviewed, and we believe you will find it interesting. The degree informs us of the completion of the Temple by the insertion of the last Keystone into the Arch. Then the Craft is dispersed "to work in foreign lands". Some are retained, however. While most consider this to be purely an American degree, there is evidence to its development in the UK in the 18th century.

Remember that you may come out and sit on the side-lines, and will NOT be asked for words or signs, so there is no pressure. If you haven't been in Chapter for some time, this will be a good meeting to attend.

Companions with the increase in postal rates, we are looking at an annual increase in mailing costs of $30.00. While not a lot of money, it could be used for other purposes. Please consider having the Trestle Board e-mailed to you rather than using the Post Office. If you want to join the eleven Companions who now get the newsletter via e-mail, contact Right Excellent John Bullach at Jwbullach@aol.co or at 6819 Williamsburg Blvd. Arl., VA. 22213.
